"My children attend Discovery Church Preschool, and I cannot emphasize enough how strong their educational plan is. All of the teachers there truly encourage your children to learn and they are all so caring and friendly. If you are looking for a sanctuary for your own kids, this is the best gem in Johnston County. My son, who's 4, is already spelling and has been only attending a month. My daughter, almost 2, is blossoming from the teachers' encouragement to be more social. The church itself seems very family and community oriented. Simply the best!" - Jessica Ayers, from Discovery Church's Facebook page
